Future Fund deepens investment team

The Future Fund today announced a number of appointments to its investment team.

Nadine Lennie has been appointed to the role of Director, Private Markets. Nadine will work with Raphael Arndt to develop the Fund's investments in infrastructure and timberlands.

Most recently Nadine was an Investment Director at Hastings Funds Management and previously spent seven years in Project Finance with PricewaterhouseCoopers.

Sarah Carne joins the Fund in May as Manager, Equities working with Elspeth Lumsden, Head of Equities. Sarah joins the Fund from Frontier Investment Consulting where she was a senior consultant. Her previous experience includes roles with Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu in Melbourne and New York.

Duncan Graham has been appointed as Senior Analyst, Private Markets with a focus on property and reporting to Barry Brakey. Duncan starts his new role in April. Duncan previously worked with Barry at Pinnacle Property Group.

Andrew Pearse takes up the role of Senior Analyst, Strategy in April. Andrew joins from ANZ where he was Equity Market Risk Manager. Previously he held roles with QSuper, QIC and the Commonwealth Treasury.

David George joins the Fund as Senior Analyst, Fixed Interest and Alternatives. David's previous experience includes roles with Mercer Investment Consulting, Royal Bank of Canada and Integra Capital Financial Corporation.

David Neal, Chief Investment Officer, said: "These appointments deepen the skills and capabilities in the investment team and give us additional firepower to identify and progress investment opportunities. We're focused on building a cohesive and motivated team to develop and implement our plans and I'm delighted to welcome our new colleagues."
